5. The composer's Bio (in Italian or in English).

► IMPORTANT!!!

The composer's name and any other identifying information must be removed from the PDF files. Scores with visible names will be rejected. Please note that using black boxes to block out the name in Apple Preview is not effective, as the information can reappear on certain platforms, like Dropbox.

In order to facilitate the jury's work, the indications on the scores must be in English, French, German or Italian.

► Members of the jury will be:

GIORGIO COLOMBO TACCANI (ITA)

LILIYA UGAY (UZB/USA)

GIANLUCA CASTELLI (ITA/GER)

► The jury will choose a single winner, who will receive a prize of € 1000,00.

► In addition to that, the winner will be asked to compose a piece expressly for the musician/s, winner/s of the "Premio Novecento" (either soloist or group) awarded for the best performance of a piece composed after 1950, at the 25th edition of the "Luigi Nono International Chamber Music Competition", taking place from October 21st through October 23rd, 2022.

► The commissioned piece will be premiered by the winner/s of the "PREMIO NOVECENTO" in a concert within the 2023 musical season, organized by APS "Amici per la Musica". The composer will be invited to attend the premiere, but the presence is not mandatory. APS "Amici per la Musica" can support travel costs up to 500 €.

► The name of the winner will be posted on the Facebook page and on the website of APS "Amici per la Musica" (www.amiciperlamusica.com) within the beginning of the "Luigi Nono International Chamber Music Competition (October 21st, 2022)".

The results will be also announced during the awarding ceremony of the above-mentioned competition, Sunday, October 23rd 2022. The winner will be informed by e-mail, as well.
